

Terms of Service Use || Agreement

- Payment Terms - Payment is made part in advance at 25%, to secure a designer for project work to go ahead. Final payment of 75% is due, once the client has agreed on/approves of the final design.
- Payment Methods - Clients can make payments by use of Bank Transfer, PayPal, Postal Order, Cheque or Cash. You will a receipt to confirm any successful payments you make to Curve Creative Freelance Design.
- Credit Period - When the initial deposit is paid to secure the design project, full payment should be received by Curve Creative Freelance Design within a period of 30 days. The completed date (in some cases, the initial set deadline) of the design work signifies the 1st day of the 30 day period. Only upon Curve Creative Freelance Design receiving the remainder of the payment of the project will it then be released, fully, to the client.
- Copyrights - Curve Creative Freelance Design are copyright holders of any projects created under the name, unless stated otherwise. A request to purchase exclusivity can be made in the Project Contract, if necessary.
- Late & Non-Payments - Curve Creative Freelance Design reserve the right to charge 10% interest on any 30 day outstanding payments and to claim compensation for debt recovery costs. This also includes our right to retain ownership of any designs already supplied until they are paid for, in full and of the circumstances in which the contract may be cancelled before the work is completed.
- Contract Agreement - Once you receive your project contract, please review it to make sure that all items are correct and you agree for such work to be completed. We offer extra items listed on the contract, such as "Add Project to Disc" at no extra charge, if you request "Project Exclusivity". But you will be charged extra for items you wish to add, after the contract has been agreed to, due to request of extra services.
- Contract Cancellation - If the Terms & Conditions or the agreed Contract is not followed through correctly by the client, Curve Creative Freelance Design can and will terminate work. Agreeing to the conditions detailed, states that you are completely aware of the actions you must comply with. However, if Curve Creative Freelance Design are accountable for any contract violations, we will seek to compensate the client accordingly.