

Privacy Policy || GDPR

1. What is the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)?

The GDPR is a new European privacy law that goes into effect on the 25th of May. The purpose of the GDPR is to have the same data protection laws across all EU member states and give its citizens more control over how and when their data is used. The Curve Creative Freelance Design Privacy Policy will take this new effect on Friday, May 25th 2018. If you continue to use our services after that date, it means you agree to these new terms.

2. What data is stored?

Details you have provided to Curve Creative Freelance Design: Your forename and surname, company name, email address, company website, contact telephone number.

3. What is my data being used for?

You have agreed to be contacted for one or both reasons below:

- a. A mailing list to receive monthly printing deals.
- b. A potential/current client and wish to work with Curve Creative Freelance Design in future.

4. How long is this data being stored for?

Your data will continue to be stored here until you contact Curve Creative Freelance Design with your wishes to have them removed. You can simply do this in an email to info@ccdcltd.com and requesting for your details to be removed.

5. How should it be shared in future?

Curve Creative Freelance Design does not share any information that you have provided unless you have made such a request. Curve Creative Freelance Design has not need or intention of sharing your information in any capacity. It is stored to identify potential and current clients.

6. What Cookies do you store?

None. This is a portfolio website used to advertise services that are provided to the general public. There is no need for this website to collect information on you, in any way or form. The Cookie Law is a piece of privacy legislation that requires websites to get consent from visitors to store or retrieve any information on a computer, smartphone or tablet. You do not enter any information into this website, therefore nothing needs to be recorded.

7. Where can I get more information on the GDPR?
